A. APPLICATIONS

All graduate applicants are required to submit a USC On-line Application for Graduate Admission in addition to the Department of American Studies & Ethnicity Supplemental Application. The USC Application for Graduate Admission must be submitted online at www.usc.edu/admission/graduate/applyonline/. The Supplemental Application must be sent to the Department of American Studies & Ethnicity, USC, Los Angeles, CA 90089-4033 / aseinfo@usc.edu / Fax: 213.821.0409

Information on financial aid are available from USC Graduate Admissions, Los Angeles, CA 90089-0911, (213)740-1111, or <http://www.usc.edu/admission/graduate/>. The application deadline for Fall 2010 is December 1, 2009. All application materials must be received by the deadline.

Foreign students should contact International Admissions for details of language requirements, visa, etc. (213)740-5686.

B. ACADEMIC RECORDS

All applicants must send official copies of their academic transcripts and scores from Graduate Record Examination (GRE) to the Office of Graduate Admission. On the GRE application form, fill in Score Report Recipient as follows: Institution Code (4852) & Department Code (2206). In addition, applicants must have official copies of transcripts and GRE scores sent directly to the Department of American Studies & Ethnicity. Fall 2010 applicants are urged to take the GRE in November 2009. Scores from tests taken any later than December may not reach USC in time to be considered for admission, fellowship and assistantship opportunities.

C. LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

A minimum of three letters of support are required. Letters from faculty familiar with your work in American studies, ethnic studies, or a related field are encouraged. The letters should be sent by recommenders directly through the on-line application.

D. PERSONAL STATEMENT

A one-thousand word typewritten essay (maximum length four pages, double spaced) explaining why you are interested in obtaining an advanced degree in an interdisciplinary program, why you are interested in the Department of American Studies & Ethnicity, and how it relates to your personal objectives and past experience. Add any other pertinent information concerning your qualifications. The essay should be sent directly to the Department of American Studies & Ethnicity and through the on-line application.

E. RESEARCH PAPER (maximum of 25 pages)

An undergraduate or graduate research paper or a critical essay (i.e. term paper, thesis) that represents your best work, preferably on a topic in your area of interest. The research paper should be sent directly to the Department of American Studies & Ethnicity and through the on-line application.
