

FACULTY SEARCH: LECTURE OPPORTUNITY

College of Letters, Arts and Sciences

American Studies and Ethnicity

The Department of American Studies & Ethnicity, Dana and David Dornsife College of Letters, Arts and Sciences, University of Southern California, in Los Angeles, California, is currently seeking to hire a part-time lecturer. We are looking for a scholar who is able to teach race, ethnic studies, and Latina/o Studies for up to three courses during Spring semester 2012. Sample courses include:

AMST 340 Latino Los Angeles
AMST 448 Chicana/o Latina/o Literature
AMST 320 Social Construction of Race and Citizenship

The department is interested in scholars from the social sciences or the humanities whose work demonstrates an engagement with the fields of American and Ethnic Studies. The scholar should have a Ph.D. in the relevant field of study by the start of this appointment.

USC strongly values diversity and is committed to equal opportunity in employment. Women and men, and members of all racial and ethnic groups, are encouraged to apply.

To apply please send letter of interest, a CV with a list of three recommendations, and sample syllabi by November 10, 2011 to: Macarena Gómez-Barris, Interim Chair, Department of American Studies and Ethnicity, Kaprielian Hall (KAP) 462, Los Angeles, CA 90089-2534, preferably by email to asehiring@dornsife.usc.edu.

In order to be considered, applicants must also submit an electronic USC application; follow this job link or paste in a browser:
<https://jobs.usc.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=61835>