The Miller Travel Award
Fall 2009
USC College of Letters, Arts & Sciences

The Miller Travel Award, established in May of 2008, will provide one award of $2,500.00 (twenty five hundred dollars) to one student enrolled in an approved study abroad program for the Spring of 2010. Only students with a major or minor in the USC College of Letters, Arts & Sciences and have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 are eligible to apply. Students must be in good academic standing and must be making satisfactory progress toward their degree.

The student recipient will receive a $2500.00 credit which may be used to fund required tuition credit, housing or travel expenses, as needed by the recipient.

To apply, send this completed form along with the required materials supporting materials to the address below by 5:00 pm on November 13, 2009. The awardee will be notified via e-mail and by mail by early December.

Send application materials to:
Office of Overseas Studies
823 W. 34th St., CLH 203
Los Angeles, CA 90089-0128
Attn: Elizabeth Williams, Study Abroad Advisor

Application materials include:
- Current resume
- Personal essay. The scholarship donors (both USC alumni) believe strongly that both travel and a good sense of humor have impacted their lives in strong and positive ways. They believe these are critical for our current students and future leaders. In an essay of 500 words or less, please describe a humorous incident that you experienced while away from home and what this incident taught you about yourself or others.
- STARS report
- If receiving financial aid, a copy of Financial Aid Summary from OASIS.
