GLOBAL EAST ASIA INFO SESSION

Monday, February 6, 2017 at 5:30pm-6:30pm | Location: SOS B40

E-mail easc@usc.edu with your full name to sign up for the Info Session

Global East Asia is a four-week intensive Problems Without Passports upper-division area studies research course open to students from all majors and language backgrounds. EASC-360: Global East Asia gives students the opportunity to live, study and travel for two weeks between USC and either China or Japan.

China
Professor Brett Sheehan
Global Consumer Culture and China

Japan
Professor Lon Kurashige
Foreigner and Gaijin: International Understanding in a Global Age