FORENSIC PSYCHOLOGY: THE CRIMINAL MIND

July 3–30, 2011 | 4-Week Course

Forensic psychology involves the application of psychology to legal issues. Gain an introduction to some legal issues that call on psychology with an emphasis on the underlying psychological science. Topics will include insanity, criminal profiling, violence risk assessment, and trial consultation. Popular examples, such as the John Hinkley insanity defense and the O.J. Simpson jury selection process, will be examined and critically discussed. Excellent for those interested in psychology, social science and law.
