INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

July 3–30, 2011  |  4-Week Course

Learn about the processes of globalization and how they are changing contemporary global politics. Through participation in simulations and case studies, explore global economic and security challenges such as wealth, inequality, transnational crime, terrorism, health pandemics, environmental degradation, and cultural conflict. Gain insights into the role of individuals and civic action in managing the challenges of globalization. Research and design a global civic initiative that addresses a pressing global problem.
