Statement of Purpose

Using a separate sheet of paper (typed), please indicate why you are interested in applying for the position of Supplemental instruction leader. Include how you are qualified for the position, what you can bring to the program, what your overall goals are, and how you think this experience will enhance both yours and the participating SI student's academic lives at USC.

Possible Question on a Weekly Sheet

Please think of a topic that you found challenging in the course you are hoping to be an SI Leader for. Then, write a question or problem on that topic that could be included on a weekly SI sheet. Next, write the answer (or solution) and how you would go about explaining this to your SI students.

You will not be asked to verbally explain this in the interview.

Recommendations

List 2 persons I could contact for a personal recommendation. It would be preferable if one were a faculty member from the same discipline as the course(s) you are applying to be a leader. Please list their name, title and phone number or email address.
