Hovel Scholarship for Undergraduate Study of German

APPLICATION DEADLINE: NOVEMBER 11

We are proud to announce a limited number of scholarships of up to $10,000 each for study abroad in Germany for the Spring 2016 semester.

Recipients of this award should:
- Have a declared USC Dornsife Major on STARS report
- Have a 3.0 GPA or higher
- Be enrolled in a USC-approved study abroad program in Germany and classes in German
- Background in German language, and knowledge of German culture, history, politics
- High level of interest in German language, culture, history, politics, economics, and society

The scholarship is a stipend that can be used towards a semester or a year-long period of study in Germany.

APPLICATION

Name:

USC ID:

Email:

Phone:

Major:

Year:

Expected Graduation Date:

Name and cost of German program of enrollment:

Period of time anticipated in Germany:

Please describe your interest and experience with German.

Please attach your STARS report. Applications should be turned in to Bovard ADM 304 to the attention of Kimberly Allen, Dornsife Office of the Dean.