Course Description and Objectives:
EALC422 (Advanced Japanese III) is designed for students who have completed an intermediate level of Japanese (EALC322/Advanced Japanese II or its equivalent) to develop an advanced level of Japanese proficiency. In this course, students discuss various topics in Japanese, thereby gaining the extended vocabulary and cultural knowledge specific to these topics. Through the speaking, listening, reading and writing activities employed in various communicative purposes, students develop an advanced level of linguistic knowledge and communication skills in Japanese. Students use authentic materials and discourse, and learn to express themselves within various socio-cultural contexts. Regular attendance and active class participation as well as diligent preparation for the class are essential to successful performance in this course. Instruction will be given solely in Japanese.

The specific objectives of this course are:
1) to acquire the appropriate vocabulary, kanji, expressions, etc. necessary for the bottom-up processing needed for discourse level language use and to acquire the cultural knowledge in specific topics and situations needed for the top-down processing of such discourse.
2) to develop reading skills using authentic material for different communicative purposes. Depending on the purpose of the reading, different reading skills are necessary, e.g., knowing how to scan in order to extract information, how to skim for get the gist when reading articles, etc.
3) to develop oral and aural communication skills in different speech styles, e.g., formal vs. informal speech, gender stylizations, etc.
4) to develop writing skills in different styles, e.g., e-mail communication or essays.
5) to develop self-study skills to become independent learners of Japanese and to learn strategies when encountering unknown words and expressions.

Prerequisite:
Advanced Japanese II (EALC 322) or equivalent

Recommended grammar reference guides:

Dictionaries (one from each category recommended):
- Japanese-English Dictionaries, English-Japanese Dictionaries:
  I recommend electric dictionaries (make sure it has a kanji-dictionary as well). Canon Wordtank models are very popular among Japanese learners; please check their website for the latest models.
- Kanji-English Dictionaries:
  - Nelson, Andrew N. Japanese-English Character Dictionary. (Tuttle)
  - The Kodansha Kanji Learner’s Dictionary (漢英学習字典) (Kodansha)
  - Kodansha’s Compact Kanji Guide (Kodansha International)

Course Components

1. Attendance and Class Performance
   - You are expected to attend all classes and to be punctual. Your class performance is evaluated every day on a 5-point scale. You are required to be well prepared and to speak in Japanese during the class. If you are not well prepared and/or do NOT try to speak in Japanese, it negatively affects your grade. Failure to observe this rule (e.g., speaking in English in class too often, chatting with your classmates in English) also negatively affects your grade. Late arrival and leaving early also negatively affect your grade.
   - If you have to miss a class because of a religious observance, you must let the instructor know about it within the first two weeks of the semester. In general, if you have to miss a class, try to contact the instructor either by email or by phone as soon as possible so that you will not miss any information and that you can obtain permission to submit late or early homework.
   - If you are absent from class for three times consecutively without any information/contact provided to the instructor, it is considered as a sign of withdrawal from the course, and no handouts or information will be saved for such students thereafter.

2. Homework
   - All homework should be turned in on the days specified in the daily schedules in order to receive full credit. Homework submitted one day late will be accepted in special circumstances. No credit will be given to any submission later than two class days.
   - If you receive 「もう一度」 on your assignment (due to too many errors/ blanks), you must correct your errors and resubmit it to receive full credit in the immediately following class.
   - The instructor will point out errors using the “Keys to essay/homework correction” handout. If you are not sure what the right answers are, you are welcome to ask the instructor after class and/or during office hours.
   - No credit will be given for homework completed during class time.
3. Vocabulary/Kanji/Particle Quizzes
   • Several vocabulary/kanji/particle quizzes will be given for each unit. Make-ups will be given only when a student has a legitimate reason and obtains the instructor’s approval.
   • Three lowest quiz scores will be dropped for the final grade calculation.

4. Unit Tests
   • Four unit tests will be given (at the completion of Unit 1, 2, 4, and 5). Make-ups will be given only when a student has a legitimate reason and gets the instructor’s approval.

5. Written Assignments
   • Students will receive feedback from the instructor on their first draft, which they will then revise and turn in as a final draft. The first draft receives credit as a homework assignment, and only the grading on the final draft counts toward its final grade.

6. Individual Project Work
   • Each student has to research about some aspect of Japan - past or present, and present the findings to class (approximately seven min. followed by two-min. Q & A).
   • Possible topics include: food, animation, comic books, traditional arts, current events, history, politics, entertainment (e.g., sports, music, movies), topics from the textbook, etc.
   • A handout regarding the details of the project work will be given in class.

7. Blog
   • Each student is encouraged to keep their blog in Japanese. Up to 1% extra credit toward the course grade will be given to the content of the blog (percentage to be determined by the instructor).

8. Oral Exam
   • Two oral exams will be given during the semester. Two students form a pair and perform the tasks together in a 10-15 minute session per exam. Each student will be graded separately. The content of each exam is cumulative. No make-up exam will be offered unless the student has a legitimate reason and obtain instructor’s approval in a timely manner.

9. Midterm Exam (中間試験)
   • One written midterm exam (2 hours) will be given. The contents of the exam are cumulative, i.e., it will cover everything you will have learned up to that point.
   • No make-up midterm exam will be given, unless the student submits a written request stating the unavoidable circumstances why s/he can (could) not take the exam in question, and secures approval from both the instructor and the program director for the make-up exam.

10. Final Exam (期末試験)
   • The final written exam (2 hours) will be given at the time specified in the schedule of courses (Wednesday, December 18th, 11:00 a.m. ~ 1:00 p.m.). You must take the final exam at the time scheduled for your section.
   • It is your responsibility to resolve potential final exam schedule conflict before you finalize your course registration for the semester (i.e., first three weeks). Stipulations governing the make-up of a missed final exam will follow the general university policy.
Grading Breakdown:
- Attendance and class performance: 10%
- Homework assignments: 10%
- Written assignments: 3%
- Project work: 4%
- Vocabulary/Kanji Quizzes: 8%
- Blog (extra credit): 1%

*You must score 60% or more on the final exam to pass the course.
