Prerequisite
Japanese 1 at USC or its equivalent (Nakama 1a, 2nd edition Ch. 1 – Ch. 6.)
Those who have taken Japanese at institutes other than USC should consult with the instructor to be placed into the appropriate level.

Course Description and Objectives
EALC 122 (Japanese II) is the second course of USC’s 4-year Japanese program which consists of the basic courses: EALC 120 (Japanese I), 122 (Japanese II), 220 (Japanese III), 222 (Japanese IV), as well as more advanced courses.

This course is centered around basic Japanese conversation practice, basic grammar, building proficiency in reading and writing Hiragana, Katakana, and Kanji (Chinese characters used in Japanese). Continuing from EALC 120 (Japanese I), EALC 122 (Japanese II) covers from Chapter 7 to Chapter 12 of Nakama 1, 2nd edition (Nakama 1b).

Students who wish to enroll in Japanese III should receive a grade of B or higher in Japanese II.

Upon successful completion of Japanese 2, the student should be able to:
- Understand speech that combines new and previously learned elements from a variety of contents including hobbies, shopping, invitations, family members, weather, and annual events.
- Develop language skills to survive in real-life situations.
- Perform basic communicative exchange.
- Understand written material such as menu and the floor directory in Hiragana, Katakana and 128 essential Kanji including from previous semester.
- Write simple texts such as e-mail messages and short essays of a few paragraphs by integrating new and previously learned structure.
- Master Hiragana, Katakana and have a good command of new Kanji that they have learned.

Course Notes
Copies of Power Point slides will be posted on the Blackboard every day after class.

Course Policies

1. Attendance and class performance

You are expected to attend all classes and to be punctual.

If you have to be absent from a class for any reason, try to contact the instructor as soon as possible, so that you will not miss any information.

If you have to be absent because of a legitimate reason such as illness, you should make a request of (1) extension of homework due and (2) make-up of mini quiz and/or Dialogue Check by providing timely notice and the reason of absence to the instructor.

If you have to be absent from a class because of a religious observance, you must let the instructor know about it within the first two weeks of the semester.

If you are absent from class for four days consecutively without any information / contact provided to the instructor, it is considered as a sign of withdrawal from the course, and no handouts or information will be saved for such students thereafter.

Your class performance is evaluated every day -- 5 points per session. If you are absent for any reason other than timely noticed religious observance, you cannot earn these points. If you are not well-prepared for the session and/or do NOT try to speak in Japanese, it negatively affects your grade. Chit-chatting, too much English speaking, using cell-phone, doing homework assignments in class, late arrival and leaving early also negatively affect your grade.

2. Homework （しゅくだい）

Due date of each homework assignment is notified on the weekly schedule posted on Blackboard (http://blackboard.usc.edu).

No late/early assignments are accepted without prior permission.

No credit will be given for homework completed during class time.

Please refer to the separate handout for the submission and the grading system of homework assignments: “How to Complete Your Homework Assignments.”
3. Lab assignments  (ラボのしゅくだい)

Lab assignments include Writing assignments, Dialogue Checks, and Lab Activities on Workbook (Student Activities Manual).

You are expected to do Lab assignments on your own on the weekends. Each lab assignment is graded for the quality of submitted work.

When an essay is assigned as a Lab assignment, the first draft is graded as regular homework (done or zero). The final draft that reflects the correction on the first draft is graded for the quality.

4. Participation in Conversation Clinic  （カンパセーション・クリニック）

Students are required to attend Conversation Clinic twice in the semester. The clinic session is an individual meeting with an instructor to check and discuss the problems in their pronunciation, conversation strategies, or any other aspects of Japanese.

Schedule one conversation clinic session in each of the following periods:

- #1  1/29（水曜日） ～ 2/13（木曜日）
- #2  3/3（水曜日） ～ 3/24（木曜日）

5. Blog Project  （ブログプロジェクト）

Students are required to post a photo essay, a video clip, or a sound file to the class blog web site as either an individual project or as a group project to demonstrate their understanding of the Japanese language and cultures. The posting due of your project is 4:00 p.m., Friday, 4/10. Students are also required to check the classmates’ postings, give comments and fill in the evaluation sheet. The details will be discussed in class.

6. Mini Quizzes  （小テスト）

About two dozen mini quizzes (5 min. each) will be given throughout the semester (dates are shown on the weekly schedule). They will be based on new vocabulary, basic grammatical points, and kanji. No make-up quizzes will be offered unless the student has a legitimate reason and obtains instructor’s approval in a timely manner. Two lowest quiz scores will be automatically dropped from your total score.

7. Chapter Tests  （テスト）

One Japanese I Review test and three chapter tests (30 min. each) will be given during the semester, on the second week and at the end of chapters 7, 9, and 11. No make-up tests will be offered unless the student has a legitimate reason and obtains instructor’s approval in a timely manner.

8. Oral Exams  （はなすしけん）

Three oral exams will be given during the semester at the end of chapters 8, 10 and 12. Two students form a pair and perform the tasks together in a 10-minute session per exam. Each student will be graded separately. The content of each exam is cumulative and a study guide will be provided before the exam so that the students can practice for the exam with their partners. No make-up oral exams will be offered unless the student has a legitimate reason and obtains instructor’s approval in a timely manner.

9. Midterm Exams （ちゅうかんしけん）
Two midterm exams (50 min. each) will be given during the semester at the end of chapters 8 and 10. The content of each exam is mainly based on current chapters; however, each test/exam is accumulative and will include everything you have learned.

No make-up midterm exams will be given unless the student submits a petition request form with supporting documents for an alternate date, stating the unavoidable circumstances leading to an expected absence from the exam in question, and secures approval from both the section instructor and the program director for the make-up exam.

10. Final Exam （きまつしけん）
The final exam (2 hours) will be given at the time specified in the course catalogue, and you have to take it at that time. Stipulations governing the make-up of a missed final exam will follow the general university policy. It is your responsibility to resolve potential final exam schedule conflict before you finalize your course registration for the semester. Check your final exam schedules on the Final Examinations Schedule: http://classes.usc.edu/term-20143/finals/
Once again, those who do not score 60% or more on the final exam will not pass the course.

The final exam schedule:

May 9 (Sat), 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.  Room: TBA

Your being officially enrolled for the course will be taken as confirmation that you have read and understood this syllabus, and agree to its requirements and other relevant conditions stated therein.

Good luck, and がんばりましょう!!

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Conduct:

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Section 11, Behavior Violating University Standards: https://scampus.usc.edu/1100-behavior-violating-university-standards-and-appropriate-sanctions/. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct/.

Discrimination, sexual assault, and harassment are not tolerated by the university. You are encouraged to report any incidents to the Office of Equity and Diversity http://equity.usc.edu/ or to the Department of Public Safety http://capsnet.usc.edu/department/department-public-safety/online-forms/contact-us. This is important for the safety whole USC community. Another member of the university community – such as a friend, classmate, advisor, or faculty member – can help initiate the report, or can initiate the report on behalf of another person. The Center for Women and Men http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/cwm/ provides 24/7 confidential support, and the sexual assault resource center webpage sarc@usc.edu describes reporting options and other resources.

Support Systems:

A number of USC’s schools provide support for students who need help with scholarly writing. Check with your advisor or program staff to find out more. Students whose primary language is not English should check with the American Language Institute http://dornsife.usc.edu/ali, which sponsors courses and workshops specifically for international graduate students. The Office of Disability Services and Programs http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home_index.html provides certification for students with disabilities and helps arrange the relevant accommodations. If an officially declared emergency makes travel to campus infeasible, USC Emergency Information http://emergency.usc.edu/ will provide safety and other updates, including ways in which instruction will be continued by means of blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technology.
