“Ask Me About My Research” was the theme on October 12 as the SGM 5th floor walls were transformed with faculty posters for the first Undergraduate Research Faire in the Department of Psychology. The halls were filled with eager undergraduates asking questions and speaking directly with professors and graduate students about their research. The posters remain on the walls and several undergraduates have been spotted studying the posters and taking notes on whom to contact regarding research opportunities in the department.
Dr. Jesse Graham has been notified that he is a dissertation award finalist for 2011, in both the Society for Experimental Social Psychology (SESP) and The Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues (SPSSI).

Dr. Rachel Beattie has been nominated by USC for The American Council of Learned Societies’ New Faculty Fellows program.

Aubrey Rodriguez (advisor, Dr. Gayla Margolin) has received a 3-year NIH-NIMH F31 NRSA award for her project titled, “Parental military deployment and adolescent mental/behavioral health.”

Phillip Sayegh (advisor, Dr. Bob Knight) has received a 2011 American Psychological Association Dissertation Research Award.
