The IR Workshop Series is the centerpiece of CIS efforts to promote faculty research and graduate training and foster an intellectual community where participation is the norm.

Thursday, September 4
ANDREW COE
"The Modern Economic Peace"
Discussant: Benjamin A.T. Graham

Thursday, September 18
CHIN-HAO HUANG
"Getting it Right in the South China Sea: A Case for Reciprocity, Restraint, and Regional Norms"
Discussant: Andrew Coe

Thursday, October 2
J. LAWRENCE BROZ, UC San Diego
“Central Bank Support Coalitions”
Discussant: Nick Weller

Thursday, October 16
DAVID KANG
"Military Expenditures and External Threats in East Asia and Latin America"
Discussant: Joey Huddleston

Thursday, October 30
JACQUES HYMANS
“‘The Limits of Japan’s Energy Angst: Why Japan has not (yet) exploited its vast geothermal energy potential”
Discussant: Patrick James

Thursday, November 20
ABBY WOOD
"Caught in the Act but Not Punished: On Cultures of Corruption and Deterrence"
Discussant: Gloria Koo

Thursday, December 4
BENJAMIN A.T. GRAHAM
"Powersharing and Democratic Development"
Discussant: David Kang

This is a closed workshop series, open only to USC faculty, fellows, and POIR PhD students. Any further questions? Please contact student organizer of this series: Xinru Ma, xinruma@usc.edu

Phone: 213-740-0800 • E-mail: cis@dornsife.usc.edu • Fax: 213-740-1070 • 3520 Trousdale Pkwy, SOS B1, Los Angeles, CA 90089-0037 • Center for International Studies, University of Southern California