Todd M. Bauer

Todd M. Bauer is the founder and President of Guardian Group, Inc., Athena Services, Inc., Completion Contractors, Inc., and their related companies. Guardian and its subsidiaries provide engineering and construction services to the insurance, banking, construction and real estate industries nationwide. Guardian specializes in remediating and taking over incomplete, problematic, and complex public and private engineering and construction projects, in the industrial, environmental, commercial, housing, and infrastructure arenas.

Todd holds leadership roles, is a member of numerous industry organizations, and is a frequent speaker at industry events. He is an Eagle Scout, enjoys outdoor activities, and has two children with his wife, Lydia. Their daughter Alex is currently a freshman at USC studying Environmental Science.

Mr. Bauer earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Southern California in Business Administration – Entrepreneurship in 1985 and his graduate degree from The University of Texas at Austin in Business Administration - Accounting and Finance in 1989.