Italian 224 (Italian 4)

Fall 2017

Tuesday & Thursday - 2:00-3:50

Instructor: Francesca Italiano

Prerequisite: Italian 220

In this course, students will expand and refine their knowledge of Italian language and culture, as they explore Italian music, literature, movies, fashion, and food. Students will also examine some relevant historical events and phenomena that have shaped contemporary Italy. They will also become familiar with some specific regional traditions and customs, vernacular traits, and different culinary local cuisines.