This course has, as its major objective; help the student to gain an understanding of French literary works through close readings of representative texts.

Being an introduction to French literary history, this course is also an initiation to reading different genres (poetry, theater, prose) and writing about them: the students will learn:

1) to be rigorous in their writing,
2) to organize a paper

and with these, they will learn the necessary bases to go on with their French literary and cultural studies.

THIS COURSE IS TAUGHT IN FRENCH.

Section 34268  2:00-3:20pm Mondays and Wednesdays
Dr. Beatrice Mousli-Bennett
bbennett@usc.edu