No previous knowledge of Italian required.

ROME, ITALY
USC INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SESSION
May 22, 2014 - July 11, 2014

The Department of French and Italian offers students the opportunity to study Italian while living in one of the most exciting cities in the world, Rome. No previous knowledge of Italian is required. Students must take one intensive Italian language class and Italian 335, a two-unit class that will explore the representation of Rome through some of Italian cinema’s most emblematic films. Excursions to nearby cities, visits to local museums and sites, and many cultural and social events are planned and included in the cost of tuition.

Students live with an Italian family.

The seven-week program is offered at the undergraduate level:

Students are required to enroll in one of the following Language courses:
