This newly designed conversational Italian course offers our students a unique opportunity to practice and improve their Italian language skills, while engaging in stimulating discussions pertaining to contemporary Italian culture. Although the class will be conducted entirely in Italian, some reading and writing are required. For information please contact Alessio Filippi at: afilippi@usc.edu