THE NIPPON FOUNDATION FELLOWS PROGRAM 2014-15

The IUC is pleased to announce a 10-month fellowship program for Ph.D. students in all fields of Japanese studies, generously sponsored by The Nippon Foundation. The Nippon Foundation Fellows Program at the IUC aims to provide the most promising young scholars with the deep linguistic and cultural knowledge needed to become leaders in their fields, and to foster strong collegial bonds and intellectual exchange among them and their IUC senpai.

Fellows will receive a full tuition scholarship and modest living stipend to attend the 10-Month Fellowship Program at the IUC Yokohama.

In addition to their regular classes The Nippon Foundation Fellows will:

- Meet regularly with each other and the IUC Resident Director to discuss their research interests and experiences in Japan

- Invite an IUC alumni scholar to give a lecture at the IUC

- Conduct research during the second half of the program and present their results in Japanese at The Nippon Fellows Foundation Symposium at the end of the academic year.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 2013
