We are pleased to invite you to join us for the:

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT SENIOR HONORS
THESIS PRESENTATIONS

April 10 & 17, 2014
THH 420 - Ide Commons Rm.

THURSDAY APRIL 10

2:00 PM  Alyra Lennox
Thesis: “A Great Mosaic-Like Whole: Intertextuality in Milton and Milosz”
Readers: Professor Percival Everett and Julianne Werlin

2:30 PM  Gerri Gonzalez
Readers: Professors Kate Flint and Ross Scimeca

3:00 PM  Whitney Tolar
Representation and Reality though the Memoirs about the Vietnam War”
Readers: Professors Rick Berg and Tim Gustafson

3:30 PM  Ryan Kindel
Thesis: “City Animals”
Readers: Professors Michael Du Plessis and David Treuer

---

THURSDAY APRIL 17

2:00 PM  Peter Figliulo
Thesis: “From the Mountain to the Cradle: Existential Fiction and World War”
Readers: Professors Percival Everett and David Treuer

2:30 PM  Betty Fang
Thesis: “The Perks of Being the Wallpaper: The Phenomenology of Carceral
Spaces in Literary Sites of Heterotopia”
Readers: Professors Tania Modleski and Susan McCabe

3:00 PM  Michelle Khazaryan
Bildungsromans and their Relationship to the Canonization Process”
Readers: Professors Elda Maria Román and Karen Tongson

3:30 PM  Christopher Bautista
Thesis: “More than a Moor: The Role of Double Consciousness in Othello”
Readers: Professors Bruce Smith and Emily Anderson