"Students Talk Back" is a weekly lunch series where USC students have the opportunity to discuss national and state politics with professional experts from the worlds of campaigns, government, policy and journalism. Every Wednesday, we'll discuss one issue that dominates political debate in Washington and Sacramento. Students will participate as panelists and analysts, and our guest experts will answer questions and respond to comments from those in attendance.

The lunches are co-sponsored by the Unruh Institute of Politics, Department of Political Science, The Daily Trojan, Political Student Assembly, College Democrats and College Republicans.
