

STUDENTS
TALK BACK
WEEKLY
DISCUSSION
SERIES

The USC Internship Experience: Your Career's First Step

TUESDAY, November 16th

FREE FOOD!

Served at 11:30AM

Discussion begins at noon

Fishbowl Chapel

at the University Religious Center

How can an internship help you take the first step in your career and put some practical application behind that Political Science degree? Join us to learn about the USC internship experience, and hear stories from both past and present interns. Through their experiences, and the Unruh Institute's internship program, you can develop the contacts and resume building skills you'll need to land that elusive first job.

Panelists Include:

Internship Providers:

Matt Rodriguez - Democratic Strategist, Dewey Square Group
Alex Comisar - Internship Supervisor, Fiona Hutton & Associates

Past and Present Interns:

Marisa Varond - Policy Intern, LA Chamber of Commerce
Shannon Lacy - Deputy Volunteer Coordinator, Boxer Campaign
Arin Ghosh - UN Association of the USA Pacific-LA Chapter
Ben Toribio - Intern, LA District Attorney's Office

Moderated by:

Art Auerbach - Internship Coordinator, Unruh Institute of Politics
Bret VandenBos - Internship Associate, Unruh Institute of Politics

For more information please call 213-740-8964,
e-mail unruhins@usc.edu, or visit: www.usc.edu/unruh

Jesse M. Unruh
Institute of Politics

