Management Need:

- Homes along Malibu’s Broad Beach Road are vulnerable to current high tides and storms. Some homes are protected by coastal armoring such as sea walls, revetments and cobble; others are only protected by eroding sandy beaches. King Tides images will help homeowners better understand their future vulnerability and will help local and elected officials plan accordingly.
- Please note the coastal access points included on the map above.