Management Need:
- The area north of International Boardwalk currently floods under high tides and major storms. The City of Redondo Beach has requested images from this area during King Tide and major storm events. They hope to use these images to help communicate their current vulnerability to elected officials and city residents and to provide a visual representation of what they might anticipate under rising seas.