Comparative Literature, we think you’ll agree, is the best-kept secret (the top secret?) in the College, and it’s time more people heard about it. Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to help us to “declassify” Comp Lit for your fellow students.

Tell us, in no more than 100 words, why you’re a Comp Lit major or minor (or why you take Comp Lit classes even though you are not a major or minor), and we may select your testimonial and profile to be featured on our website and in our recruitment materials. Everyone who submits entries will also be invited to an end of semester party (details TBA).

Send your entry to complit@usc.edu, by November 2014. Please include your name, class standing, major and minor program(s) of study, and a sentence or two about yourself. If possible, please include as well a photo of yourself. The selection will be announced in mid-November.
