

GOLD LINE // NEW RELEASE // SPRING 2014

IVER ARNEGARD

Whip And Spur

PRAISE:

"The prose & subject matter in Whip And Spur is astonishing, starkly rendered, tough yet sensitive, with a great balance of broad strokes and fine chiseling. There are smart contrasts throughout, in narrative and in syntax."

— TRINIE DALTON

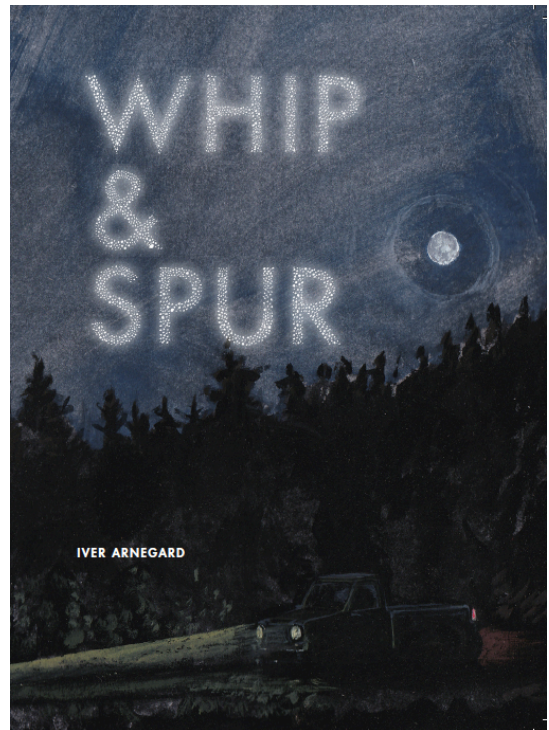

ABOUT THE CHAP:

Iver Arnegard's debut short fiction collection takes us into the desolate landscape of the Northern Plains and Western states, where man is but another animal seeking sustenance. The hardscrabble men and women who populate these fictions must survive and contain wildness within and without, a struggle fraught with violence, wonder, and moments of crystalline beauty.

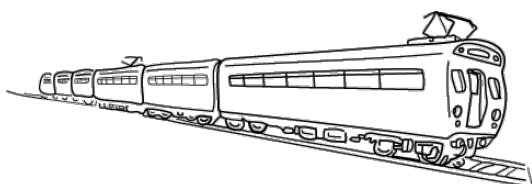

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

IVER ARNEGARD'S fiction, nonfiction, and poetry has appeared in the North American Review, the Missouri Review, Gulf Coast, Cimarron Review, Pilgrimage, Barrow Street, and elsewhere. He's worked as a farmer and ranch hand, wilderness guide, waiter, dishwasher, construction worker, and woodcutter. For years he lived in remote cabins across Alaska. He currently teaches creative writing at Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Fiction {$10}
Perfect-bound
80 pages, 5.3" x 7"
ISBN 9781938900099
Release date: May 2014

GOLD LINE PRESS is a publisher of poetry and fiction chapbooks, and is associated with the University of Southern California's PhD in Literature & Creative Writing Program. For more information about Gold Line, visit <http://goldlinepress.com>.