

USC College Department of Spanish and Portuguese

Madrid Summer Program

Late May – July 2012

The Department of Spanish and Portuguese at the USC College announces its seven-week program in Madrid for 2012. Improve your knowledge of Spanish language and culture and earn eight units of credit while living in one of Europe's most exciting cities. Students take two courses, live with a Spanish family, attend lectures at Madrid's museums, take a five-day tour of the Basque Country, and make daytrips to the monastery of El Escorial and the historical cities of Segovia and Toledo.

Estimated costs: USC tuition (8 units, $11,360) plus airfare and room and board.

Possible courses:

Spanish 265	Spanish for Communication: Society and the Media
Spanish 266	Spanish for Communication: Arts and Letters
Spanish 311	Advanced Spanish Through Contemporary Issues
Spanish 341	Advanced Conversation and Culture
Spanish 465	Cultural Perspectives of the Iberian Peninsula
Spanish 490	Directed Research

USC reserves the right to cancel any program in the case of an emergency beyond its control, or to cancel programs or substitute classes due to low enrollment or unavailability of faculty. Students will need to submit a $500.00 non-refundable deposit check together with the application materials. Should the program be cancelled, deposits will be refunded to students. Students must register for eight units of credit. If the program is cancelled due to insufficient enrollment, the decision to do so will be made by April 2012.

Program is tentative pending approval.
