Spanish and International Relations, Valencia, Spain

The Departments of Spanish and Portuguese and International Relations announce an interdisciplinary course in the city of Valencia, Spain. Improve your knowledge of Spanish language and immigration issues, and earn four units of credit while living in one of Spain's most interesting cities. Students take one course, live in a student residence (the Colegio Mayor), and explore Valencia through visits to centers of immigrants, non-profit organizations as well as other cultural events in Valencia surroundings.

SPAN 499 Special Topics: Immigration in Spain (4 units)

Estimated Costs: USC tuition (4 units $5,440), room and board 800 Euros (~ $ 1200), plus airfare.

Possibilities to get funds from the Del Amo Foundation, SURF, and Phi Kappa Phi.

The program is open to qualified undergraduate and graduate students who meet the prerequisites (being at the level of SPAN 265/266 or by permission of instructor). Major and minor credit is available.

For further information, contact Dr. Marianna Chodorowska-Pilch, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Taper Hall 156 L, chodorow@usc.edu. or cal 213 740-1258

USC reserves the right to cancel any program in the case of an emergency beyond its control, or to cancel programs due to low enrollment or unavailability of faculty. Should the program be cancelled, deposits will be refunded to students. Students must register for one course only. If the program is cancelled due to insufficient enrollment, the decision to do so will be made by April 2012.

Program is tentative pending approval.
