BCG BRIDGE TO CONSULTING WORKSHOP
May 16-17, 2019

BCG is committed to growing and supporting top talent from among groups currently under-represented in executive ranks, boards of directors, and in consulting, that is the Black/African American, and Hispanic/Latino populations. This program aims to identify, support, develop, and retain top Black and Latino students, like you, to become leaders in consulting and the global business community.

ABOUT BCG
We are trusted advisers to the world’s most influential businesses, governments, and non-profits, working as partners on their most challenging issues. With more than 90 offices in 50 countries, we help our clients respond to today’s incredible pace of change to stay competitive and add value to society. With BCG, you will learn how to navigate complexity, draw unique insights, facilitate change, and become a leader responsible for real and lasting impact.

Challenged by mentors and supported by teams, you will join a diverse group of highly driven, exceptional individuals who respect and trust each other. In a culture where ideas are heard regardless of tenure, the deep relationships you develop with clients and colleagues will become a foundation for your future endeavors.

WORKSHOP OVERVIEW
• Two-day intensive workshop open to students in the graduating classes of 2021 and 2022
• Meet with BCGers of various tenures, participate in a case simulation, and learn more about BCG casework
• Workshop participants will be invited to interview for an Externship
• Externs will participate in a week-long shadowing experience as a member of a BCG case team
• All hotel, domestic travel, and meal costs funded by BCG
