This course explores the cultures of Peru (Spanish, indigenous, mestizo, African, etc.) in the context of their shared history and their shared language: Spanish. Students will be immersed in the language, history, music, dances and culinary traditions of Peru and will use tools for addressing a range of problems associated with Quechua cultural loss, the gain of the Spanish language, ethnic discrimination, and other related topics.

Estimated Costs (excluding Spring Tuition):
- International flight (USA-Peru-USA): $700 - $900
- Domestic flight (Lima-Cusco-Lima): $200
- Meals not covered by program $150
- Room & Board: $800. It includes:
  - Hotel in Lima: 5 nights, hotel in Sacred Valley: 2 nights
  - Homestay in Cusco: 2 weeks

For application details contact Prof. Martin Ocon-Gamarra at ocongama@usc.edu or Prof. Karen P. Pérez at perezk@usc.edu