UPCOMING EVENTS

Facsimiles, Forgeries, and Mistaken Identity among Chinese Rare Books - Lecture by Sören Edgren
Wednesday, November 13, 2019 | 4:00PM-5:00PM | LVL 301 | FLYER | RSVP

Based on decades of experience authenticating and cataloguing Chinese rare books, Dr. Sören Edgren, Chinese rare book specialist from Princeton University, will introduce a wide variety of bibliographical problems and their interesting, and sometimes complex, solutions. This lecture will provide a comprehensive background to the history of printing in China and East Asia, and it will open up avenues of inquiry for Western historians of the book.
Chinese Rare Books at USC: A Hands-on Workshop
Thursday, November 14, 2019 | 3:00PM-5:00PM | DML 206 | FLYER | RSVP

After the lecture, please join us for a special hands-on workshop on Thursday with Dr. Sören Edgren to explore the Chinese rare book collection at USC libraries. After reviewing the collection, Dr. Edgren will select and showcase notable examples from the USC collection and compare them with other copies from collections in U.S. and around the world. Participants of the workshop will have the opportunity to gain first-hand experience with editions of Chinese rare books from the Ming (1368-1644) and Qing (1644-1911) periods.

These lecture and workshop are co-sponsored by the USC Libraries Dean’s Challenge Grant, East Asian Studies Center, Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures, and East Asia Library. All are welcome to attend.

EVENT WEDNESDAY
2020 Global East Asia Maymester Info Session
Wed, Oct 23 | 5:00-6:00PM | MRF 340
FLYER | RSVP

We look forward to seeing students interested in traveling and conducting research in China or Japan at the 2020 Global East Asia Maymester Info Session this Wednesday! In 2020, there will be three Global East Asia Maymester programs going to China (Brett Sheehan), Japan-Tokyo (Benjamin Uchiyama) and Japan-Kyoto (Jason Webb). The info session will give interested students the opportunity to learn about the program components, the application process and the experiences of previous participants.

EVENT REMINDERS
Job Search: Succeeding Beyond Academia
Mon, Oct 28 | 12:00-1:00PM | SOS B40
FLYER | RSVP

As a reminder, the Grad Professionalization Series on Job Search: Succeeding Beyond Academia is next Monday. This workshop will be led by Rebecca Corbett, Assistant University Librarian of Japanese Studies, Gloria Koo, Associate Director of the Korean Studies Institute and Matthew Gratias, Director of Department of Defense Engagement at Virtualitics, Inc. They will explore diverse career options and how to leverage PhD training for non faculty positions, both within and outside academia.
EASC Open House at Trojan Family Weekend
Thurs, Oct 31 | 1:00-1:50PM | CAS 100
| RSVP
All are welcome to attend the EASC Open House during Trojan Family Weekend 2019 on Thursday, October 31, 2019. Meet with faculty, advisors and staff to explore programming offered through the East Asian Studies Center. Find information about interdisciplinary majors and minors that focus on China, Japan and Korea; study abroad and research opportunities in East Asia; interdisciplinary graduate study; and academic and cultural events sponsored by EASC throughout the year. We hope to see you there!

Jeronimo Screening and Q&A with Director Joseph Juhn
Wed, Nov 6 | 6:00-8:30PM | THH 202
FLYER | RSVP
Please RSVP if you would like to attend the screening of Jeronimo, a feature-length documentary that highlights the current state of Koreans living in Cuba. The documentary features the history of Jeronimo Lim Kim who was born in 1926 to Korean indentured servant parents in Cuba. He joins the Cuban revolution and crosses paths with Fidel Castro and Che Guevara until he rediscovers his ethnic roots and dedicates his later life to reconstructing his Korean Cuban identity. The screening will be followed by a Q&A with the director, Joseph Juhn. This screening is co-sponsored by the USC East Asian Studies Center, Korean Heritage Library and Korean Studies Institute.
