INDUSTRIAL EDEN: MISSIONARIES, DEVELOPMENTAL STATES, AND A CHINESE CAPITALIST FAMILY, 1900–1952

BRETT SHEEHAN, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF HISTORY

2–5 P.M.
AHN FAMILY HOUSE

Leading scholars in the field of Chinese history will discuss a new book manuscript by Brett Sheehan, Associate Professor of History at USC. Manuscript discussants include SHERMAN COCHRAN, Professor of History at Cornell University, and PARKS COBLE, Professor of History at University of Nebraska–Lincoln.

Graduate students and faculty from USC and the community are welcome to attend. Interested attendees must read the manuscript. To RSVP and request a copy of the manuscript, please contact easc@dornsife.usc.edu.