ROME, ITALY
USC INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SESSION
May 19, 2016—July 8, 2016

The Department of French and Italian offers students the opportunity to study and live in one of the most exciting cities in the world, Rome. No previous knowledge of Italian is required. Students are encouraged to take both one intensive Italian language course and Italian 499, a four-unit Problems Without Passports course that will explore Italy’s “Lost Generation” of youth from political, economic, and social dimensions, or either course. Excursions to nearby cities, visits to local museums and sites, and many cultural and social events are planned and included in the cost of tuition.

Students live with an Italian family.

The seven-week program is offered at the undergraduate level.

Students may enroll in one of the following Language courses:

- Italian 120 Italian I 4 units
- Italian 150 Italian II 4 units
