Guest speaker Dale Minami, a partner with San Francisco-based Minami Tamaki LLP, has long been an advocate for the civil rights of Asian Pacific Americans. He served as a litigator for Korematsu v. United States, a lawsuit to overturn a 40 year old conviction for Japanese Americans who refused to obey exclusion orders during World War II. In his talk, Minami will explore the experiences of World War II-era Japanese Americans and their long road to justice.

Minami played an instrumental role in the formation of the Asian Law Caucus, of the Asian American Bar Association of the Greater Bay Area, the Asian Pacific Bar of California, and the Coalition of Asian Pacific Americans. In recognition of his achievements, Mr. Minami has received numerous awards including the American Bar Association's 2003 Thurgood Marshall Award, the 2003 ACLU Civil Liberties Award, and an honorary degree from the McGeorge School of Law.
