Midterm 2010: USC/LA Times Poll Finds Truth In Politics

TUESDAY, November 9th
FREE FOOD!
Served at 11:30AM
Discussion begins at noon

Fishbowl Chapel
at the University Religious Center

What’s the meaning of this election? What’s the number one reason people voted? If you think it’s as simple as jobs, jobs, jobs, think again! USC students worked diligently with the Los Angeles Times to uncover who matters, what matters, and why we elected candidates X, Y and Z. At this special lunch event, USC students share their experiences and insights about working on this election season poll.

For more information please call 213-740-8964
or visit: www.usc.edu/unruh

DAILY TROJAN