Blueprint Partners: http://www.blueprintpartners.eu/
Blueprint Partners helps clients to communicate effectively with the audiences. Their expertise involves working within the policy environment of the EU and its Member States and helping clients navigate this complex environment. This work includes advocacy, intelligence gathering, stakeholder relations and transaction and competition support. Blueprint also offers expertise in complementary fields, such as communication, training and media relations. They work to integrate public affairs strategies and media relations programs in order to bring significant benefits to reputation management.

European Voice: http://www.europeanvoice.com/
The European Voice is a weekly newspaper with an independent view of the EU. European Voice's mission is to promote informed debate, openness and progress in the EU and the newspaper has become essential reading for the EU regulatory and political affairs communities – Europe's most important decision-makers.

Research Assistant with Professor Allison Woodward with VUB's Gender Studies Centre
Professor Woodward is co-director of the Centre for Gender Studies and Diversity Research at the VUB and Senior Associate Fellow at the Institute for European Studies. She has taught and researched at the Universities of California, Uppsala, and Antwerp, Ruhr University, Wayne State University, Rutgers University, the Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin, European University Institute, the Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm, and the Belgian National College of Architecture and Urban Planning. Her research interests are in the fields of European Union governance and comparative public policy and organisation, especially in the areas of civil society, diversity and equal opportunities. She serves on the editorial boards of Equal Opportunities International and the European Journal of Women's Studies. Her current research is on gender and transnational social movements in the EU.

EU-Russia Centre: http://www.eu-russiacentre.org/
The EU-Russia Centre is an independent pan-European organisation for people interested in Russia and the future of EU-Russia relations. It provides a forum and platform where European and Russian organisations can discuss their shared interests and promote greater mutual understanding for mutual benefit.

The Royal Institute for International Relations is an independent think-tank based in Brussels. Its interdisciplinary research is conducted in a spirit of total academic freedom. Drawing on the expertise of its own research fellows, as well as that of external specialists, both Belgian and foreign, it provides analysis and suggests international policy options that are meant to be as operational as possible.

Brussels Institute for Contemporary China Studies: http://www.vub.ac.be/biccs/site/
BICCS serves as the capital of Europe's main academic hub between Europe and China. It aims to increase European understanding of contemporary China and its impact on world affairs. It has three main objectives:

The Institute for European Studies, Vrije Universiteit Brussel (VUB): http://www.ies.be/
Copura (Consultancy): http://www.copura.de/raab_1_en.php
European Foundation for Democracy (Advocacy group): http://europeandemocracy.org/