

GOLD LINE PRESS // NEW RELEASE // SPRING 2021

ALEJANDRO HEREDIA

You're the Only Friend I Need

PRAISE

"This is a stunning debut from Alejandro! These riveting queer stories sit with the complexity of heartbreak and romance, holding contradictions that push us to think and feel anew. These pages and the rich characters that populate them are a breath of fresh air. I can't wait to see what Alejandro does next!"

Travis Alabanza

Author of Before I Step Outside (you love me)

"Alejandro Heredia writes gorgeously. His voice elevates the queer poetry of the vernacular while his prose leaves fingerprints on your brain and heart. He will give you all the feels in Spanglish."

Myriam Gurba

2019 Gold Line Press Fiction Chapbook Contest Judge

ABOUT THE CHAPBOOK

The stories in Alejandro Heredia's You're the Only Friend I Need offer new possibilities for transnational storytelling and the Dominican diaspora by centering Blackness and queerness. In these stories, friendship is a vehicle to understand what lies between and within people. A young Dominican immigrant makes an unlikely friend in her Bronx building. Two queer teens venture into the streets of Santo Domingo in search of queer belonging. A 20-something lost in existential thought finds a home in a gay Latin club.

In Heredia's stories, friendship is at once balm, poison, wound, and respite from the troubles that society places on migrants, on queer people, on Black folks across the diaspora. You're the Only Friend I Need cuts through received notions and sings with emotional honesty and lyrical prose.

GOLD LINE PRESS is a chapbook publisher of poetry and fiction associated with the University of Southern California's PhD in Literature & Creative Writing Program. For more information about GLP, visit <http://goldlinepress.com>

Fiction {$10}
Perfect-bound
50 Pages, 5.3" x 7"
ISBN 978-1-938900-37-2
Release Date: May 2021
Book Design by Kenji C. Liu

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Alejandro Heredia is a queer Afro-Dominican writer and community organizer born in Santo Domingo and raised in The Bronx. He is a 2018 VONA/Voices fellow, and 2019 Dreamyard Rad(ical) Poetry Consortium Fellow. Myriam Gurba selected Alejandro's chapbook, You're the Only Friend I Need, as the winner of the 2019 Gold Line Press Fiction Chapbook Contest. Alejandro's work has been featured in Auburn Avenue Magazine, La Galeria Magazine, No Dear Magazine, and elsewhere.