Anna More is Associate Professor of Spanish and Portuguese at UCLA and Hispanic Literatures at the University of Brasília. Her research focuses on the literature and politics of the colonial period of Latin America, particularly on seventeenth-century Mexico. She is the author of Baroque Sovereignty: Carlos de Sigüenza y Góngora and the Creole Archive of Colonial Mexico (U Penn, 2013) which received an honorable mention for the LASA Mexican Studies Humanities Award. She has also published on seventeenth-century colonial science, poetics and historiography in Mexico, scholasticism and Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz, among other topics, and is editor of the forthcoming Norton Critical Edition, The Selected Works of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz. She is currently working on a book project tentatively titled Freedom’s Edge: The Radical Baroque.
