This course focuses on the examination of Cuba’s contemporary culture through the analysis of arts, literature, music and dance. We will also cover the recent changes in the U.S-Cuba relations. Students will have the opportunity to go to Cuba for two weeks (from May 28-June 11) and visit the cities of Havana, Matanzas and Pinar del Río.

Course taught in English!

Estimated Costs:

- USC Spring tuition (4 units)
- Airfare -- $500
- Room, Board, and Other Expenses -- $1,380*

*13 nights accommodations in Cuba, excursions within Havana, Matanzas, and Pinar del Río. Daily breakfast, 18 meals, local transportation, admission to all museums, coordination of all activities and full time professional bilingual guide.

For more information and application materials contact Program Director Ivette Gomez (igomez@usc.edu) Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Taper Hall 342