Ecrire en Republique Democratique du Congo
(Life as a Writer in the Congo)

Wednesday, November 12th, 2:00 p.m.
Feuchtwanger Memorial Library
(room 206 in Doheny Memorial Library)
Reception to follow

Pierre Mumbere Mujomba is a fiction writer, playwright, theater director, and actor from the Democratic Republic of Congo. His 1999 play, La dernière enveloppe, won international attention and garnered the Découverte RFI-Théâtre Sud prize. His latest novel, Ecce homo, was published last year in Paris. Mujomba is currently a visiting scholar at Villa Aurora in Pacific Palisades.

Staff, faculty, and students are invited to attend this lecture (presented in French), in which Mujomba will relate some of the highs and lows of his experiences as a writer in Africa.

This event is cosponsored by Villa Aurora, the USC French Department, and the Feuchtwanger Memorial Library.
