Jean-Pierre Azéma

L’HISTORIOGRAPHIE
DE LA FRANCE DE VICHY

Tuesday February 22, Doheny Memorial Library, Intellectual Commons, 2:30 pm

French specialist of World War II, Jean-Pierre Azéma is an historian who teaches at the Institute for Political Sciences in Paris. His research focuses on the Resistance and the interim government of Vichy between 1941 and 1944. He wrote extensively on those issues and his latest publications include 6 juin 1944 (in collaboration with Robert O. Paxton and Philippe Burin, 2004) and a biography of Jean Moulin (2003).

This event is co-sponsored by the USC Francophone Resource Center, the USC College of Letters, Arts and Sciences, and the University Information Services Division.
