French-American Poetry Week

A celebration of Contemporary Poetry

April 13-15, 2006

In honor of the American National Poetry Month and the French Printemps des Poètes, the Cultural Services of the French Embassy in partnership with the USC Francophone Resource Center and Otis College of Art and Design’s Graduate Writing Program presents a week of cross-cultural readings and lectures dedicated to contemporary poetry.

We are lucky to have the participation of French poets Jean-Michel Espitallier, Sabine Macher, Yves di Manno, Nicolas Pesquès and American poets Jerome Rothenberg, Cole Swensen, Guy Bennett and Simone Forti.

April 13, 7-10 pm  Otis College of Art and Design
9045 Lincoln Blvd
Los Angeles, CA 90045

April 14, 2-4 pm  University of Southern California
Feuchtwanger Library
Doheny Memorial Library, 2nd Floor

April 15, 7-9 pm  Stages Theatre Center
1540 N. McCadden Place
Los Angeles, CA 90028

For more information please visit:
www.usc.edu/schools/college/francophone/events/coming_up/bio/poetry.html

CONTACTS:
Béatrice Bennett : bbennett@usc.edu, (213) 740 3703
Sylvie Christophe : sylvie.christophe@diplomatie.gouv.fr, (310) 235-3285