THE ART OF TEACHING FRENCH
Bring French to life in the classroom through movement and theater

FEBRUARY 20, 2010
9:00-16:00
USC, LANGUAGE CENTER,
TAPER HALL 320

A professional development session led in French and in English by Jackie Planeix and Tom Crocker, co-directors of Bluepalm

Jackie Planeix and Tom Crocker focus on helping teachers and students use the arts to make meaningful connections between different areas of learning. Their methods are rooted in the powerful effect that movement and emotional connections have on language acquisition and more generally, on cognition. In this hands-on workshop, participants will explore movement exercises and theater games that bring language to life while anchoring memorization, contextualization, and meaning.

Planeix and Crocker design arts education programs and conduct professional development for teachers K-12 in the United States as well as in France. Graduates of the Mudra Performing Arts Institute, they are certified by the French Ministère de la Culture.

(Please wear comfortable clothing)

For more information:
USC, Francophone Research & Resource Center
frc@usc.edu, Tel: (213) 740 3703