REAL FRENCH FOR THE CLASSROOM:

USING AUTHENTIC MATERIAL TO IMPROVE LISTENING SKILLS.

LIDWIEN VAN DIXHOORN, Rfi Radio France Internationale

USC, LANGUAGE CENTER, TAPER HALL 320

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 2010

8:30 A.M. WELCOME & BREAKFAST
9:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M. WORKSHOP

Come and learn how to use different radio formats for various pedagogical purposes!

You’ll get an overview of different RFI formats and program and will be provided with handouts to define your lesson plan with program extracts that fits your class and your student’s levels.

If you already use the media in your classroom, you will get new ideas and new perspectives on radio listening activities.

If you find it difficult to use authentic spoken French from the media, you will get insights and ideas on how to make listening to the French radio a playful and enjoyable experience!

Lidwien van Dixhoorn is Head of the French language department of Radio France Internationale in charge of multimedia programs for learning and teaching French. She holds a Master’s degree in Didactics of French as a foreign language, and specializes on media and language learning. As an expert, she trains teachers of French on the use of multimedia resources and regularly manages co productions for partner radios abroad.

Enroll now!!

This workshop is limited to 40 participants.

Organized by the Francophone Research & Resource Center and co-sponsored by the USC Language Center and the Consulate General of France

uscCollege