Teaching French culture in class

The Francophone Research & Resource Center is pleased to invite you to a new workshop that will provide tools for teaching French culture in the classroom. You will get an opportunity to learn up-to-date information on France (demography, economy, politics, society, art and culture), along with educational resources to create activities in class.

LIMITED TO 30 PARTICIPANTS
ENROLL NOW!

To RSVP, please contact the Francophone Research & Resource Center: frc@usc.edu. For more information, please go to: https://dornsife.usc.edu/francophone-center/.

Bernard Gruas has been a teachers’ trainer since 1991 and worked with several training centers including Alliance française and the French Embassy in different countries (Germany, Austria, Afghanistan...). His main interests are French culture, teaching with theatre and the media.