From Jews to Bangladeshis: Marginal Street Vendors in Central Rome

Beginning with the Jews in the late 19th century up to present-day Bangladeshi immigrants, Piazzoni traces how marginalized street vendors claim a Right to the City in the iconic landscapes of Rome.