CLASS PROCEDURES

1. Quizzes are given in class on Wednesdays or Thursdays of weeks 4, 7, 10, and 13. Quizzes usually cover only the material since the previous quiz. Quizzes focus on lectures, but if a topic is covered in lecture, you have to know what the reading says about it. Assuming lecture notes are available, mistakes in the notes will not excuse you from making mistakes on the test. Exams are returned in class within two days. You may look at your exams in class or in office hours, but you may not copy down questions or take the test with you.

2. Lecture Notes: One of the assignments (worth 2 points in total) is to turn in your lecture notes for two classes. You are assigned to take notes during the following weeks based on your last name:

Last name	A-C	D-J	K-L	M	P-R	S-Si	Sj-Sz	T-Z
Weeks	1 or 2	3 or 4	5 or 6	7 or 8	9 or 10	11 or 12	13 or 14	14 or 15

If your first name starts with A-L, do the first week listed. If it starts with M-Z, do the second. Notes must be neatly handwritten, not typed. Be sure to include a proper heading, including your name, date, and class time. Upload the file to the discussion board of our class website. The link you post must connect directly to a single file containing your complete set of notes with just one click. No ads, no multiple files, etc. If there is no lecture on your assigned day then do the class before or after. Notes should be posted within 36 hours of your second day of note-taking. If you have trouble with scanners and computers, the easiest solution is to go to a copy store and have them scan your papers to a pdf file, which you can then upload. If you can’t do your assigned week, you can do the week before or the week after.

3. Missed exams: If you have to miss a quiz, I will usually put more weight on your final exam. You must email me promptly, and you can only do it once.

4. Grade Appeals are made to the grader in writing or by email. Grades sometimes fall after appeals. Appeals must be made within 10 days of the exam.

Statement on Academic Conduct and Support Systems

Academic Conduct

Plagiarism – presenting someone else’s ideas as your own, either verbatim or recast in your own words – is a serious academic offense with serious consequences. Please familiarize yourself with the discussion of plagiarism in SCampus in Section 11, Behavior Violating University Standards <https://scampus.usc.edu/1100-behavior-violating-university-standards-and-appropriate-sanctions/>. Other forms of academic dishonesty are equally unacceptable. See additional information in SCampus and university policies on scientific misconduct, <http://policy.usc.edu/scientific-misconduct/>.

Discrimination, sexual assault, and harassment are not tolerated by the university. You are encouraged to report any incidents to the Office of Equity and Diversity <http://equity.usc.edu/> or to the Department of Public Safety <http://capsnet.usc.edu/department/department-public-safety/online-forms/contact-us>. This is important for the safety whole USC community. Another member of the university community – such as a friend, classmate, advisor, or faculty member – can help initiate the report, or can initiate the report on behalf of another person. The Center for Women and Men <http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/cwm/> provides 24/7 confidential support, and the sexual assault resource center webpage sarc@usc.edu describes reporting options and other resources.

Support Systems

A number of USC’s schools provide support for students who need help with scholarly writing. Check with your advisor or program staff to find out more. Students whose primary language is not English should check with the American Language Institute <http://dornsife.usc.edu/ali>, which sponsors courses and workshops specifically for international graduate students. The Office of Disability Services and Programs http://sait.usc.edu/academicsupport/centerprograms/dsp/home\_index.html provides certification for students with disabilities and helps arrange the relevant accommodations. If an officially declared emergency makes travel to campus infeasible, USC Emergency Information <http://emergency.usc.edu/> will provide safety and other updates, including ways in which instruction will be continued by means of blackboard, teleconferencing, and other technology.
