University of Southern California & Meiji University

Faculty and Graduate Student Research Exchange in Japanese Premodern Historical Studies

December 3-4, 2014
12:00-6:00
SOS 250
@ USC in Los Angeles
Thursday 12/5, 11 AM - 11:15 PM, Doheny Library 233
Opening Greetings by Prof. Piggott & Prof. Sasaki

- Keywords for our Exchange
  - Language as communication
  - Exchange of ideas and knowledge
  - Global Japan historical studies
• Thursday 12/5, 11:15 AM – 12:00 PM, Doheny Library 233

• Temporal Change in Mortuary Practices during the Transition from the Yayoi to Kofun Periods (Third Century C.E.) in Eastern Japan

• DOI Shôhei, Graduate Student in Archaeology, Meiji University
• Thursday 12/5, 12:00-12:45 PM, Doheny Library 233

• Craft Production in Kofun-age Japan from the Perspective of Agricultural Tools

• KAWANO Masanori, Postdoctoral Scholar, Meiji University
• Thursday 12/5, 12:45-1:20 PM, Doheny Library 233

• Political Organization in Kofun-age Japan

• Prof. Sasaki Ken’ichi, Meiji University
• Thursday 12/5, 2:15-3:00 PM, Doheny Library 233

• Acts of Looking and Listening in the Kojiki

• YAMAGUCHI Naomi, Graduate Student in Japanese Literature, Meiji University
• Thursday 12/5, 3:00-3:45 PM, Doheny Library 233

• Ordering the Man'yôshû

• Prof. YAMAZAKI Kenji, Meiji University
- Thursday 12/5, 4:00-4:45 PM, Doheny Library 233

- Military Issues under the Ritsuryô System—Campaigns to Northeastern Japan

- IGARASHI Motoyoshi, Graduate Student in History, Meiji University
• Discussion & Responses
  5:00-5:30