

The High Stake in Immigration Reform for Our Communities | East Bay

DID YOU KNOW?

22% of the undocumented in the East Bay are Asian immigrants.

How many and who is affected?

THERE ARE 155,000 UNDOCUMENTED CALIFORNIANS IN THE EAST BAY.

That's 6% of residents, 7% of adults, and 7% of the workforce.

NEARLY 1 IN 8 OF ALL EAST BAY KIDS HAVE AT LEAST ONE UNDOCUMENTED PARENT

77% of kids with an undocumented parent are citizens – that's 56,000 children or 9.4% of the East Bay's kids.

How will the economic impact be good for the East Bay's economy?

AUTHORIZATION WITH A ROADMAP TO CITIZENSHIP WOULD BRING A $293-$507 MILLION BOOST IN THE ANNUAL INCOME OF THE CURRENTLY UNDOCUMENTED.

This will result in, for example, more clothes for the kids, higher end purchases at the grocery store, and eventual home purchases. Lower-income undocumented Californians will cause these ripple effects that grow local economies because they are more likely to spend than save.

AUTHORIZATION WITH A ROADMAP TO CITIZENSHIP WOULD YIELD A 14-25% BOOST IN INCOME.

Boosts are based on studies that take into consideration other factors influencing income gains.

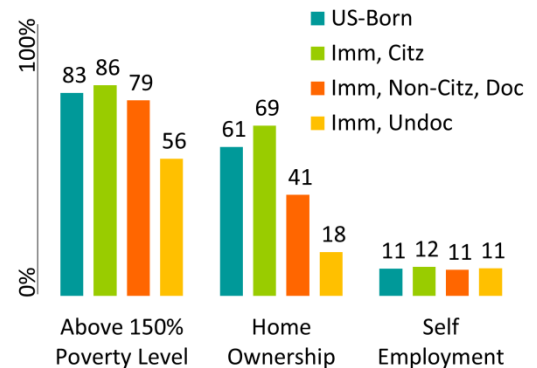

THIS WOULD BENEFIT THE EAST BAY'S KIDS SINCE 55% OF KIDS WITH AN UNDOCUMENTED PARENT LIVE IN POVERTY.

This is compared to the 18% poverty rate for kids with US-born parents in the East Bay.

Why does citizenship matter?

CITIZEN IMMIGRANTS TYPICALLY OUTPERFORM OTHER IMMIGRANTS AND THE US-BORN.

Statewide and regional bodies on integration will be needed to increase naturalization, among other things.

What should happen the day after reform?

RESOURCES FOR IMMIGRANT INTEGRATION NEED TO BE INCLUDED IN REFORM AND SHOULD BE TARGETED TO AREAS THAT WILL MAKE IMMIGRANTS MORE PRODUCTIVE:

English Language Instruction: Only 48% speak English well but there is a great desire to learn.

Health Insurance: Only 51% of working-age undocumented immigrants have health insurance.

Adult Education: 55% of the undocumented are in need of high school education and beyond.

Getting reform right will help us get the East Bay's future right.
