Question: Comments related to the question "The course is well organized" asked above:

1. It is

Question: Comments related to the question "The course textbook and other reading assignments are appropriate in content" asked above:

Response Rate: 46.67% (7 of 15)

1. Lot of reading, and tough, especially Gilpin. But it could be worse.

   I think Gilpin may be unnecessary. Also the readings are very long, and this wouldn’t be so much of a problem if they were posted at least a few days in advance. Getting in 24 hours ahead of time when I also have lots of other homework to do probably means that I’m not going to do it, or at least not do it well.

2. Contents coincide with the material that needs to be known in the field but there is too much expected of us with the readings. I understand there will be reading material for classes, especially major classes, but it is difficult content and most of us haven’t ever heard of some of the concepts. The reading level is professional level, not undergraduate level for students who have to take this core class.

3. Often times the reading assignments are too long, and there is not enough time to read them all with a full course load.

4. They are appropriate in content except for the Gilpin book; I found that this book was outdated and not beneficial to this course.

5. They are appropriate although they are long.

6. Reading are great!!

Question: Comments related to the question "The course tests and other evaluations are appropriate in content and difficulty" asked above:

Response Rate: 20.00% (3 of 15)

1. There is so much, I wish the information she wanted to us to know would have been more concise.

2. Some readings are pretty difficult.

   Great level of difficulty in tests, we are always well prepared.

3. A great variety of papers and assignments as well.
open paper topics allow us to really engage the info in something personally interesting-- creates an interest/passion of the subject

Question: Comments related to the question "The course assignments are reasonable and appropriate in content and difficulty" asked above:

Response Rate: 20.00%  (3 of 15)

1 See above.
3 challenging but as it should

Question: Comments related to the question "The course is demanding in comparison to other courses" asked above:

Response Rate: 26.67%  (4 of 15)

1 Oh yeah. But economics doesn't come naturally to me, either, so that might influence it too.
2 This is probably one of the most difficult, but most rewarding, classes I've taken at Pepperdine.
3 This was one of my most demanding courses because of the reading load, the length of paper assignments and the tests were very difficult.
4 demand a lot of time for readings

Question: Comments related to the question "The course has increased my knowledge or understanding of the subject" asked above:

Response Rate: 13.33%  (2 of 15)

1 yes!
One of the best classes of my pepperdine career
2 have learned the most in this class than any other

Question: Comments related to the question "The course is excellent" asked above:

Response Rate: 6.67%  (1 of 15)

1 very excellent

Question: What are the specific things that you like best about this course?

Response Rate: 33.33%  (5 of 15)

1 The essays were reasonable and helped increase my understanding of different topics; we didn't get busy work in this class, which was nice; and if you studied, you got an A. It was very fair.
2 It explains the basic concepts very well.
3 I really like the professor and would like to take more courses from her like an International Development course.
4 I like that this is an issue that exists today and I will be able to utilize information learned in this class to my future.
5 commanding heights!
Question: What suggestions do you have for improving the course and how it is taught?

Response Rate: 33.33%  (5 of 15)

1. Different classroom. It was sometimes hard to read her power points with the monitor we had available to us.
2. Don't expect so much from the students; we are smart, but when you don't give us the opportunity to learn new material and only expect we be experts it makes it more difficult to succeed.
3. The readings are very long and I think they could be shortened to improve student's understanding of the material.
4. Less reading assignments
5. nothing really

Question: Comments related to the question "The overall class experience has enhanced my ability to think clearly, logically, independently, and critically" asked above:

Response Rate: 20.00%  (3 of 15)

1. All the papers and essays have greatly improved my ability to synthesize material and apply it to current events.

   Learning how the international stage revolves around economics and how it can be altered to benefit certain demographics or groups of people is great to know. We were able to learn how to use our christian values intelligibly.

1 She answers her emails at all hours...it's nice to know that if I need to get in contact with her, I'm likely to hear back soon, even on a weekend.

2 Easier to communicate with via e-mail, which I appreciated because it is more flexible.

it was understood that Pepperdine only paid for her to be available twice a week, she is a great professor however, and should be brought on as full time! the time that she did have available however, she dedicated fully to students.

Question: Comments related to the question "The professor is an excellent teacher" asked above:

Response Rate: 40.00%  (6 of 15)

She knows that global economics is not many people's strong suit, but she still pushes us to learn. Even though she can be hard on us, she's still approachable and very helpful. It seems like she really cares that we do well in her course.

At first I thought the repetition and constant review was boring and tedious, and then I realized that if not for the repetition, I wouldn't understand any of the material.

The professor is very enthusiastic to teach the students and are willing to work with them eagerly outside of class

4 She seems hard but I gain a lot of knowledge from her and she knows the materials very well

5 very engaging

6 very intelligent and insightful teacher, i learned a lot and felt i was learning from the best
