Good morning, Trojans! We hope you are off to a great start to the semester! One of the many amazing qualities about USC is the diverse opportunities available to help develop lifelong connections in and out of the classroom. We hope you are finding new people to connect with. If not, let us know and we will be happy to offer some suggestions on where to start looking!

For those of you considering applying to graduate or law school within a couple of years, the beginning of the semester is a great time to start thinking about who you might want to ask eventually for letters of recommendation. Please visit our webpage for ideas on who and how (and when!) to ask for graduate school or law school letters of recommendation.

“Only through our connectedness to others can we really know and enhance the self. And only through working on the self can we begin to enhance our connectedness to others.”

— Harriet Goldhor Lerner
